The class was great. She was always keeping us busy in class with chapter preparation, and I always felt prepared for the exams because of that. I wouldn't mind if some of the worksheets and information she showed us in class, from her own material, were posted online or shared another way. Overall, she had a great presence with the class and you could tell that everyone in the class admired her.

Just to give more written things to do at home than the workbooks on the computer. It would make better practice than the workbooks.
