Difficult to comprehend certain things. Many things have been introduced and strange. Could have been too much content. At the end I felt nothing more could go in to my memory.

Cooperative and understanding. Made the class fair and enjoyable. I only dreaded how long the class was not the teaching style. As a whole, a great teacher.

I liked how small this class was because we were all able to speak. I also liked how this class was organized by each day. The only thing I kind of had a problem with was the amount of homework. It was a bit excessive, even for a 5 credit hour class.

She paced the class well and was very involved in the whole class. She was always there to help if you needed it.

There's a lot of material to cover in a short amount of time. The book is well-paced, but the homework online is problematic at best.

She knows what she's teaching and knows how to convey it. I have learned more in one class of hers than in any of my other French classes.

I learned a lot and now I feel even more confident in my ability to speak French. The only thing I would change would be the content. There is just so much information that they tried to fit into one class. The future, the conditional, and the subjunctive all in the same level (the second level)
