My instructor did everything a teacher should do. She was strict with her policies, faire with her grading and above all was passionate about French. Overall I wish more teachers would be the way Mrs. Grech was in class because it was a real joy to go to class.

She provided all handouts necessary and always prepared a study guide. This was a well thought out class.

Prof. Grech was extremely helpful. I do not enjoy speaking much in class especially in a subject that is so difficult but she was always positive and encouraging. She knew who had never taken French and paid attention to that when calling on people for the more difficult questions.

I do not hold Mrs. Bernadette Grech accountable for the lack of grammatical insight provided by the Début's textbook. She was very fair, and knows the French language very well. She was a delight to have for an instructor.

Bernadette is professional and very knowledgeable. She maintains firm classroom order. Her attitude is one of wanting her students to succeed. She expects a lot from her students, yet she is gracious. Sometimes she was too hard on students who still struggled after weeks of class, in my opinion.
